

BLANKETS! BLANKETS! BLANKETS!

There is goodness in our blankets that you can depend on. We carry the largest assortment of blankets to be found in this part of the state and have all sorts. We sell you the best blanket sold in town for 50 cents. It is full size and extra heavy. We have Cotton and Wool blankets at $1.50, 2.00 up to $3.75. Some house-wives say the cotton holds them firmer—adds to their wearing qualities—especially in the washing. Then for the better ones, those elegant California blankets so warm and fleecy, just the thing for the cold nights that are sure to come. They are all wool but have been thoroughly shrunken and we have them from $4.00 to $9.00 a pair.

See Our Window Display of These Goods.

SHEET and PILLOW CASES! These ready made helps to good house-keeping were never more reasonable than they are to day. You can actually save money by buying these necessities made up. Quality always considered.

A Quilt Sale

will be appreciated at this time. We offer you a very large assortment of Crochet and Marseilles Quilts at about one-fourth off regular prices. These goods are all new, fresh stock but were bought advantageously by us. Yours will be the gain.

Comforters in endless variety with good clean batting filling, all sweet and clean such as you would make at home.

THE BROOKS-TYLER DRY GOODS CO.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

Physicians.	Insurance Agents.	Musical.
DR. MAURICE F. PILGRIM, Oculist and Aurist. Warren Chambers, 419 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.	MOORE & CO., Fire, Life and Accident Insurance. Steam Boiler, Plate Glass, Elevator and Em- ployers' Liability Insurance. Dealers in Coal. 32 Eastern Ave., St. Johnsbury, Vt.	PROF. C. W. PICKELS. Lessons in Singing, Piano, Organ, and Harmony. The Burtho House or St. Andrew's Parish Room. St. Johnsbury, Vermont.
DR. J. E. HARTSHORN, Specialist—Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. No. 29 Main St., St. Johnsbury, Vt.	RICKABY & CO., Fire, Life, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance. Real Estate. 80 Eastern Avenue, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	GEORGE C. FELCH, Pianoforte Tuning and Regulating. 5 Cherry Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.
E. H. ROSS, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. Office and residence, 84 Main Street. Telephone connection.	THE VERMONT MUTUAL FIRE IN- SURANCE CO. The Best. W. C. LEWIS, Agent. St. Johnsbury, Vermont.	ANNIE B. DANIELS, Graduate Tuning Department New England Conservatory. Pianos and Organs tuned and repaired. 21 Main Street, St. Johnsbury. Orders left with B. Frank Harris will re- ceive prompt attention.
C. A. CRAMTON, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. Ear, Nose, Throat and Chest a specialty. Office, 29 Main St. Residence, St. Johnsbury House. Office Hours—9 a. m. to 1 to 3 and 7 to 8 p. m.	CRAWFORD RANNEY, Fire, Life and Accident Insurance. Pythian Building, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	STILES TICKET AGENCY. Miscellaneous and Cat Race Tickets, Book and Stationery Store Connected. Opp. Depot. Don C. Stiles, Mgr.
E. W. HITCHCOCK, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. Office Hours until 9 a. m.: 1 to 2 and 7 to 8 p. m. 106 Railroad Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	DR. T. J. WALSH, Dentist. Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. 59 Railroad Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	Big Deer. J. A. Dexter, C. E. Simanton, A. L. Briggs and H. T. Fisher spent last week in Charley Mitchell's camp at Hole in the Maine woods hunting for deer and as a result of their marksmanship brought home five handsome specimens, consist- ing of four does and a buck. J. A. Dex- ter secured two and the others one each. Three of them were exhibited in Camp- bell's meat market and drew a large crowd of spectators. The gentlemen were very liberal with the venison and many were able to dine from a fine piece of steak. The buck was shot by Mr. Dexter and weighed 296 pounds.
DR. H. BUSS, Veterinary Surgeon. Graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College. Office 66 Main Street.	DR. J. L. PERKINS, Dentist. Corner Main Street and Eastern Avenue	Auction Sale of Tickets. The auction sale of seats for the Y. M. C. A. course will be held in Music Hall next Saturday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. As previously advertised there will be a free entertainment during the evening. This will consist of solos and monologue work by that prince of com- edians, Frank O. French, and instrumental music by Mrs. Brock, pianist, and Mr. Batchelder, cornetist. During the inter- vals of fun and music the tickets for the course will be sold at auction by Prof. D. Y. Comstock. Tickets for the entire course will be sold for $1.50, $2, and $2.50, according to location, and by paying premium Saturday night patrons of the course can get any seats they choose. The lecture committee have pro- vided this entertainment at considerable expense, and as no admittance is charged it is hoped it will be liberally patronized, and as a result there will be a good advance sale of seats. On Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, the course tickets will be on sale at Bingham's drug store.
ANN C. MARTIN, M. D., Specialist. Massage, Bath, Electricity, Chiroprody Manipulating and Dermatology. 13 Church, Cor. Summer St., St. Johnsbury. Successful in nervous diseases, Tumors, and a host of chronic conditions.	R. W. WARNER, Surgeon Dentist. Citizens Bank Building, St. Johnsbury, Vt. Dr. C. H. Mason's Cancer Cure can be had at this office.	French Canadian College. President Lee of the French Canadian college at Springfield, Mass., spoke at the North church Sunday morning and at the South church in the evening upon the work of that institution. He began by referring to the glorious history of the French on this continent and how though for over a century the French Canadians had been subject to the Eng- lish government, they kept their own language and their own institutions. The college has 71 pupils, nearly all of which are French Canadians, yet at times there have been 11 different na- tionalities in the institution. He said the hardest task was to persuade the parents that their children should be edu- cated instead of being placed in the factories at such an early age to remain there the rest of their lives.
Trained Nurses. MRS. DOROTHY CHOATE, General Nursing. Pasumpsic, Vermont.	Miscellaneous. J. ALBERT THORNE, Architect. Rooms 3 and 4 Republic Block. St. Johnsbury, Vermont.	NEW ADS. THIS WEEK. Bly's Cream Balm. A Partner Wanted. Livestock Stable for Sale. What is it?—J. C. Moore. Paine's Clergy Compound. Fire Sale—B. D. Steele & Co. Underwear—B. D. Hunt & Co. Tenement to Rent—D. C. Gage. House for Sale—Mrs. Curtis Lawrence. Oculist and Aurist—Dr. M. F. Pilgrim. Blankets—Brooks-Tyler Dry Goods Co. Dress Goods—Lounge Bros. & Smythe. Night School—Barbour's Business College. Stationery and Jewelry—Field & Rowell.
Trained Nurses. Miss Alice Baker, Miss Jessie Hiseck Graduates of the Providence, R. I. Hospital. 28 CH Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	WALTER J. ALDRICH, M. D., Special Attention given to Obstetrics and Diseases of Women. Office in Pythian Block. Residence, 7 Cherry Street. Telephone Connection.	FRATERNITY MEETINGS. Palestine Commandery, No. 5, K. T. The next Stated Conclave of Palestine Commandery occurs Tuesday evening, Nov- ember 22. DELOS M. BACON, Recorder. PERLEY F. HAZEN, Commander.
Attorneys. LOUIS M. LEMERISE, Attorney at Law, 65 Railroad Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	SURVEYOR AND CIVIL ENGINEER. J. M. PERHAM, C. E. Drafting office, Scale works, St. Johnsbury, Vermont.	Knights of Pythias. Regular convention of Apollo Lodge No. 2 Tuesday night, November 3. CHAS. F. VARNY, C. C. ROLPH COBLENTZ, K. R. S.
WENDELL P. STAFFORD, Attorney at Law, Bank Block, over Post Office, St. Johnsbury.	LAUCHLIN'S, BARNET, VT. Horology, Pharmacy, Optical Work. Drugs, Medicines, Watches, Silverware. Watches demagnetized and closely rated.
BATES, MAY & SIMONDS, Attorneys at Law, 59 Eastern Ave. St. Johnsbury.	C. F. GIBBS, 2 Paddock Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt. Cut Flowers and Floral Designs. For sale at all seasons of the year on short notice. For immediate attention order by telegraph, telephone or special delivery.
FARNHAM & PORTER, Attorneys at Law, Collections a specialty. Railroad Street, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	Machinists. LYMAN S. HOOKER Solicits Machine Job Work. Light ma- chinery and model work a specialty. MILL ST., ST. JOHNSBURY, VT.
DUNNETT & SLACK, Attorneys at Law, Bank Block, St. Johnsbury, Vt.	O. V. HOOKER & SON, Machinists. Piping and Steam Engine Repairing. M's Board Mills. Jobbing a Specialty. Mill St. cor. St. Johnsbury, Vt.
ALBERT PERLEY, Attorney-at-Law, Collections a Specialty. Hardwick, Vt.
LUNENBURG HEIGHTS HOUSE, Lunenburg, Vermont. Open all the year for permanent and transient guests. MRS. E. C. WHITE.

LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—The Museum will be open Saturday evening, Nov. 5, from 7 to 9 o'clock.
—The trustees have appointed Charles H. West jailer at the lock-up with all the powers that such an officer would possess.

—Dick Moore has offered his livery stable on Eastern Avenue for sale and the particulars appear in our advertising columns. This is a fine chance for anyone wanting a stable that is well located and equipped.

—The November meeting of the Woman's club will be held in Pythian Hall, Monday, November 7th, at 3 p. m. Supt. H. J. Jones will address the club on "The Broader Outlook in Education. Executive board at 2 p. m.

—Another interesting paper is spread before our readers today. Besides the fully illustrated article on the Catholic church there is plenty of local and town news and much readable miscellany. Mr. Sault's Montpelier letter is full of facts about the doings at the capital and will interest all our readers.

—Green Mountain Commandery, U. O. G. C., will have an entertainment at Pythian Hall on Friday evening of this week, to which every member with friends are invited. The exercises will consist of short addresses, explaining the insurance features of the order, songs, readings, music, etc. Persons desiring life insurance at actual cost, and in one of the best benefit organizations in the world, are invited.

A Small Fire.

At about 8.30 Saturday evening the fire alarm was rung from Railroad street, the cause being a fire in the railroad yard. The flames shot into the sky so that many thought the round house was again being consumed, but it was only a sand house situated near, which was of no great value. The department responded quickly and prevented a more serious fire.

A Handsome Medal.

The handsome gold medal which the St. Johnsbury friends of James Guilmette presented him has just been completed and was on exhibition last week. It is a solid gold shield mounted by a band engraved eagle, holding a floral wreath, and back of the eagle are the American and Cuban flags. On the front side is engraved, "Honor to the brave of Guanatanamo," and on the back "Presented by St. Johnsbury friends, Oct. 15, 1898," and on the bar "Company A, 1st Marine Battalion." Mr. Guilmette was one of the first to land in Porto Rico and was in several engagements. His friends, appreciating his valor, presented him with this beautiful medal.

Big Deer.

J. A. Dexter, C. E. Simanton, A. L. Briggs and H. T. Fisher spent last week in Charley Mitchell's camp at Hole in the Maine woods hunting for deer and as a result of their marksmanship brought home five handsome specimens, consisting of four does and a buck. J. A. Dexter secured two and the others one each. Three of them were exhibited in Campbell's meat market and drew a large crowd of spectators. The gentlemen were very liberal with the venison and many were able to dine from a fine piece of steak. The buck was shot by Mr. Dexter and weighed 296 pounds.

Auction Sale of Tickets.

The auction sale of seats for the Y. M. C. A. course will be held in Music Hall next Saturday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. As previously advertised there will be a free entertainment during the evening. This will consist of solos and monologue work by that prince of comedians, Frank O. French, and instrumental music by Mrs. Brock, pianist, and Mr. Batchelder, cornetist. During the intervals of fun and music the tickets for the course will be sold at auction by Prof. D. Y. Comstock. Tickets for the entire course will be sold for $1.50, $2, and $2.50, according to location, and by paying premium Saturday night patrons of the course can get any seats they choose. The lecture committee have provided this entertainment at considerable expense, and as no admittance is charged it is hoped it will be liberally patronized, and as a result there will be a good advance sale of seats. On Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, the course tickets will be on sale at Bingham's drug store.

Reception at Amherst.

One of the pleasantest social events that has occurred in Amherst for some time was the reception recently tendered the new superintendent of schools, A. L. Hardy, and his wife, formerly of St. Johnsbury, by the people of the town and colleges. The reception was held in the town hall which was tastefully decorated with palms and potted plants from the conservatories at the Massachusetts Agricultural College. Warner's orchestra of Florence furnished music for the occasion. Refreshments were served and during the evening some four or five hundred of the townspeople, including members of the faculty of both colleges, paid their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Hardy.

French Canadian College.

President Lee of the French Canadian college at Springfield, Mass., spoke at the North church Sunday morning and at the South church in the evening upon the work of that institution. He began by referring to the glorious history of the French on this continent and how though for over a century the French Canadians had been subject to the English government, they kept their own language and their own institutions. The college has 71 pupils, nearly all of which are French Canadians, yet at times there have been 11 different nationalities in the institution. He said the hardest task was to persuade the parents that their children should be educated instead of being placed in the factories at such an early age to remain there the rest of their lives.

Mustering Out.

The mustering-out officers of the U. S. army were here Saturday and spent nearly all day in examining and mustering-out the members of company D. The medical examiner was here about two weeks ago and examined most of the members, but there were 19 sick at that time and they received their examination Saturday. Capt. Snyder was remarkably just in his examinations, making a note of everything that could by any possible means entitle the boys to a future pension.

Capt. Ellis was mustered out, but will not be discharged until his papers arrive in Washington and are approved.

Maj. Bonette will go to Burlington Monday, where the field officers of the regiment will be mustered out, they being the last ones to leave the service of the Government. Three members of the company, F. M. Dana, C. G. Norris and H. K. Stoddard, entered the hospital corps and will be obliged to serve the full time of their enlistment as they are in the regular army.

There were seven members of the party who came to muster out the boys, Maj. Jocelyn, mustering out officer; Capt. Hovey, assistant; Maj. Townsend, paymaster; Capt. Snyder, surgeon; Col. Clark of the First Vermont Volunteers and two aids.

The men of company D are very healthy and Capt. Snyder says that in no company in the regiment has there been less than three men unable to report for examination and that in one company he found eight who were unable to be on hand on account of illness. There are now 60 men from the whole regiment who are more or less seriously ill. During the time (nearly three weeks) that the examinations have been in progress Capt. Snyder has noticed a marked improvement in the general health of the men. The men in the first companies that he examined were hardly able to drag themselves about. Nearly all were affected with laundice. Now the men who come before him seem to have nearly if not fully recovered. Those men, who on account of illness, are unable to be mustered out with their companies will probably be ordered to report as soon as they are able to the nearest military post where they will be given a physical examination and will be discharged. Of the 30 members of the hospital corps 12 have had typhoid fever.

Several members of other companies came here to be examined, as it was nearer than the place where their company would be mustered out.

Major Townsend distributed nearly $8000 Saturday and much of this money was distributed around our stores during the afternoon and evening.

An Interesting History.

Leonard G. Wheaton, who died Oct. 17, was born April 20, 1823, on the farm where he died, which was settled by his grandfathers, Caleb and Patience Wheaton, who came to St. Johnsbury from Providence, R. I., and settled on this farm. They built a log house in which they lived a few years. They had a family of two children, Lydia C., born 1793; Zalmom, born 1798, who lived on the farm with his father and was married Feb. 20, 1822 to Lucy S. Goss of Waterford. They had a family of four children, Leni, Leonard, Tirza and Lucy. In 1856 Leonard was married to Meriba T. Parker of Kirby, who died about 23 years ago, since which time he has made his home on the Wheaton farm. When he left home he commenced teaming, drawing lumber, which he followed a number of years, after which he settled at Fairbanks' Village and commenced work in the scale shop as watchman for a few years, afterwards as fireman and engineer, which position he held and assisted till his health failed him when he was brought home to the old farm to go out no more. He was quiet and pleasant in his ways, assisting and helping others in times of want and trouble and many besides his relatives and friends will mourn his loss.

Reception at Amherst.

One of the pleasantest social events that has occurred in Amherst for some time was the reception recently tendered the new superintendent of schools, A. L. Hardy, and his wife, formerly of St. Johnsbury, by the people of the town and colleges. The reception was held in the town hall which was tastefully decorated with palms and potted plants from the conservatories at the Massachusetts Agricultural College. Warner's orchestra of Florence furnished music for the occasion. Refreshments were served and during the evening some four or five hundred of the townspeople, including members of the faculty of both colleges, paid their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Hardy.

Mr. Hardy has been most cordially received in Amherst not only by the townspeople in general but by the members of the faculties of Amherst and the state colleges. The work of the year has opened most auspiciously and the year promises to be one of the most harmonious and successful the schools of Amherst have ever enjoyed.

It will be of interest to Mr. Hardy's St. Johnsbury friends to know that at a meeting of the Hampshire County Teachers' Association held in Northampton last week Mr. Hardy was elected president of the association for the ensuing year.

[For additional locals see pages 4 and 8.]

CHURCH DEDICATED.

Interesting Ceremonies Connected with the Sacred Rites at St. Aloysius Roman Catholic Church.

The dedication of St. Aloysius church took place last Wednesday morning. At 9.30 o'clock Rt. Rev. J. S. Michaud, bishop of the diocese of Vermont, assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Lynch, and several of the visiting clergy, blessed the interior of the church and then passed around the outside, also blessing the same. The ritual was very solemn and at the close the doors were opened for the dedication mass, which was a solemn high mass. Bishop Michaud occupied the throne, and was clothed with the "rochet" and "cappa," his assistants being Fr. O'Reilly of Whitefield, N. H., and Fr. Boissonault, pastor of Our Lady of Victories church, Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan of St. Albans was the celebrant and had for his assistants Fr. Shannon of Underhill, Fr. Aubin of Swanton and Fr. Marceau of St. Johnsbury. Fr. Pauquet of Lyndonville was the master of ceremonies.

The choir sang Battiman's mass in two parts which was rendered in an artistic manner. The dedication hymn was also presented with much credit. Following the solemn dedication rites was Bishop Michaud's address. The bishop explained briefly that Rev. Fr. Carmody, who was expected to preach the sermon was unable to be present owing to official reasons, and that he had volunteered to make a few remarks in his place.

The subject of his remarks was "This is the house of God, the gateway to Heaven." He referred briefly to the number of years he had known the parish and been familiar with its organizations; to the time when a division was called for. He said that the division was not occasioned by any fault in the administration of Fr. Boissonault, but on the contrary, his efforts in both the spiritual and material interests of the parish, deserved only the highest praise. The real cause of the division was, that the time had come when the English speaking Catholics of St. Johnsbury should have a church of their own where they could be united as a single family and hear the word of God preached in their own language.

He quoted the motto of Bishop DeGoesbriand "Deus providebit." "God will provide," and said that here, too, God has provided and will continue to provide. He gives us all things.

"Today we ask God for his blessing. Is it not fitting for us to come together to raise our voices to God and praise Him and ask Him to bless the building. Is it not right that the walls, the pews and all contained herein should be dedicated to God, should be sanctified?"

"Since our first parents transgressed the commands of their Creator, the whole human family, has shared their punishment and been subject to sin and error. And it is to overcome the effects of sin that the sacraments were established. This church shall be the centre of our spiritual life in this world. It is here you will bring your little babes, give them into the hands of the priest in order that they may receive the sacrament of baptism, the sacrament of regeneration, be born again, be made christians, children of God, heirs of Heaven. It is here they will come to receive the sacraments of confirmation, here too they will be instructed in the duties as christians, their duties to their Creator, and to their fellow creatures. The priest is ordained for that purpose to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ to every creature, and he is bound to do so under pain of the gravest neglect of duty, under pain of sin. Here, too, your children will come later to receive the sacrament of matrimony, and they will be fortified with the assurance that they are united in a bond that can never be broken. For the church shall never cease to reiterate 'what God has joined let no man put asunder.' Here finally every Catholic will be bourn to receive the last offices of charity. The holy sacrifice of the mass offered for the eternal repose of his soul."

He spoke of the strength of the church, which rests in authority, and within the limits of that authority she holds all men in obedience—the lawyer and doctor as well as the laborer, the priest the bishop, even the pope, for all men are fallible, are liable to error and sin. There is but one infallible authority in this world, that is the church, and the pope when acting in his official capacity, which is the same.

REV. J. A. LYNCH.

In years past there was religion in the schools, the Bible was read, prayers made and hymns sung, and it is necessary now to train the moral side of our nature as well as the intellect.

The Church.

This church is situated on Main street, just above the North church and on the site of Cross' bakery. It is built of brick, trimmed with granite, having as shown in the picture, two towers. The southern tower is the higher, being 130 feet, while the height of the northern tower is 90 feet. In the basement of the church are rooms for social worship and entertainment, including a large hall, dining room and kitchen. The auditorium of the church is 41 by 70 feet and its height 38 feet. The beautiful snow white altar at the west end of the church is 24 by 18 feet. At the rear of the church is the vestry and robing rooms. The architects are Packard & Thorne. The church is well heated by steam and the furnace and heating apparatus was put in by Bagley & Co. of White River Junction. All the rooms in the building are lit by the acetylene light which was furnished by the Vermont Acetylene Light Co. of St. Johnsbury. The pews are of richly-finished oak and manufactured by the Indiana Church Furniture Co. They were furnished the church by the eastern agents of the company, Miller & Benson of Boston. The floor has a seating capacity of 350 and the gallery will seat fully 150 more. The organ has been purchased of Hitchings of Boston, the great organ manufacturer, and the same firm which made the organ at the North

[Continued on sixth page.]